

NEWS

For Immediate Release

Contact: Katie Cacy

(o) 501-666-8195

katiecacy@veralloyd.org

Vera Lloyd Presbyterian Family Services announces two new hires

LITTLE ROCK (January 11, 2019) – Vera Lloyd Presbyterian Family Services announces the addition of two staff members.

Emily Hartle joined Vera Lloyd as its Development Assistant in the Little Rock office. In this position, she is responsible for assisting in all aspects of fundraising activities, data management and special events for the nonprofit organization. She worked for the University of Central Arkansas for 10 years in various development roles. Most recently, she worked in grant development in sponsored programs.

Katie Cacy is a recent graduate of Texas A&M University and joined Vera Lloyd as the new Marketing Coordinator. She is responsible for spear heading Vera Lloyd's public relations, marketing materials, social media campaigns, website management, special events coordination and furthering the overall message and mission of Vera Lloyd.

About Vera Lloyd Presbyterian Family Services

Vera Lloyd has been caring for youth for more than 100 years. Over time, the programs have transformed to meet the changing needs of the children and families of Arkansas, but the purpose has remained the same: to share Christ's healing love with children, youth and family in crisis. Today, Vera Lloyd offers a 45-acre campus to meet the needs of youth in foster care, the juvenile justice system, and homeless and near-homeless families through the Families in Transition program. Wrap around services such as financial coaching, life skills and higher education resources help progress these youth and families into brighter futures.

###